

B.A. Pass is a Hindi thriller film directed by Ajay Bahl which features Tisca Chopra in the lead role, with Gulshan Devaiah, Sahil Shroff and Seema Biswas co-starring. Tisca Chopra plays Rhea, a down-on-her luck woman who needs to somehow come up with the money to pay off her debts to the local goons. She decides to marry Sujay (played by Gulshan), who is in love with another girl but readily agrees after being assured of Rhea's virginity, so his family can continue living in comfort without any financial burden. Rhea decides to fake the marriage, but her plans are thwarted when she meets Sujay's mother who reveals that he is impotent.

In an interview Tisca Chopra said she played a character which was close to her own personality and that she was also able to bring in some of her own experiences from her student days. Also, Ajay Bahl, the director of the film is a former classmate of hers from Delhi University. She said working with him was an enriching experience as they had only been classmates and only communicated via emails prior to this project. She also said that she had worked with Gulshan before in the films Meri Doliyan and C.I.D. The film began production in May 2013 and was shot using a Panavision Genesis camera. The movie was shot in Delhi, Mumbai, Delhi, Chhattisgarh, Kangra Valley and Bahadurgarh. The film is the directorial debut of Ajay Bahl who co-wrote the script with his wife Amradha Varman Bahl after being inspired by the true story of a woman named Rhea who faced similar problems herself when she was an Economics student at University of Delhi's All India Institute of Medical Sciences. The music for B. A. Pass is composed by Asad Malik. The soundtrack received generally positive response from the audiences. Musicperk gave 3 stars out of 5 for the album. The lyrics are penned by Kumar, Shabbir Ahmed, Neeti Mohan and Piyer Reshamiya. Although the film received generally favorable reviews, the film was panned by critics for its plot which they regarded as predictable. Review aggregator website Rotten Tomatoes reported a 43% critics' score with an average rating of 4 out of 10 based on 8 reviews. Gautaman Bhaskaran of "The Hindu" wrote "B. A. Pass contains many good performances by its cast, especially by Tisca, but is let down by a predictable plot". Subhash K Jha wrote in his review that "B.A.Pass is essentially an old-fashioned masala entertainer about corruption in the education system.
