Plot The Crimson Dynamo invades New York City, kidnapping the head of every supervillain he encounters. Tony Stark and Rhodey travel to New Mexico, where Stark begins work on the new armor, which is designed to fire devastating blasts of energy from all three of his gauntlets. Onboard his aircraft, Stark is disturbed by a recording from the Crimson Dynamo revealing his identity and the location of his main base of operations, but dismisses the information as a bluff to distract Iron Man while the real thief, another billionaire, makes his getaway. Tony later finds the location of the base, just outside Albuquerque, and steals a car to drive there. While away, Iron Man encounters Crimson Dynamo in a bar, who attempts to kill him, but Tony manages to escape to the alley, where he is taken by guards who are actually members of Crimson Dynamo's organization. He is driven to the base, where the Crimson Dynamo imprisons him. Pepper Potts, who is living with Tony, sends Stark's helmet to the base, and he releases the Hulk with a view to making use of him. The Hulk kills most of the guards, but the one who survived appears to have time bombs attached to his body. Hulk then saves Stark, and the two heroes use the remaining time to free the captive superheroes from the base. Pepper and Rhodey fly to the base, and Iron Man, with the aid of Rhodey and Rhodey's father Col. Rhodes, are able to defeat the guards. Tony demands to know the identity of the billionaire, but Crimson Dynamo refuses to answer and attacks the Iron Man armor. Tony's attack destroys the space-firing
