Photoshop 2020 (version 21)

This article covers using the basic Photoshop features including moving, rotating, and resizing images. Duplicate and Stack Images As an image editor, you can duplicate an image using the Command+J keyboard shortcut. Simply specify that you want to create a copy of the image. To stack an image on top of another, you can use the Command+Shift+J keyboard shortcut. To move it down the layer stack, just use the keyboard shortcut Command+Shift+K. An image on its own will have one background color. You can change that color, or have a specific image available for the background, by opening up the Layers window and setting the Background Color box to a specific color. Basic Selection and Painting You can select a region in an image by making a shape with the selection tools. In the Properties panel, click the Select tab, and look for the Rectangle, Ellipse, Lasso, and Polygon tools. The Polygon selection tool is great for creating circles, squares, and polygons. The Lasso selection tool is great for drawing a line. The Ellipse selection tool is great for creating geometric shapes. Selecting the region with the Rectangle or Ellipse selection tools will cause all the pixels under that selection to be highlighted, allowing you to select a region easily. The selection areas are shaded red in the Selection toolbox.

Using the Selection tools is as easy as dragging your mouse to make a selection. In the palette beneath the What's New in the Photoshop 2020 (version 21)?

2013 New Members Welcome new members! Our club is proud to welcome these new members to our club, as they are an integral part of our club. This week we take a look at the Littleton RC Zone and how they've grown from the initial start of the club. Next, we find out about the most recent addition to the club. A new member who has been with our club since the start, with plans to make the club his life. And lastly, we learn how the club has come to be. Where it comes from, and how it has gone. If you have a business you'd like featured on our blog, you can reach out to us at We're excited to share an interview with the littletonrczone.com after their review of the club. They are familiar with the club having heard our members speak about our community, our club, and the facilities we offer. Despite the club being smaller, they were impressed by the club and about our members, we are happy to share their review. Get more information on these or other topics in the video.
