When a user visits a website, if the website's setup does not detect a user's payment method, will the website reject charges and subscriptions or is that just a pipe dream? Does the same apply when a credit card is used for a website transaction (subscription, membership) that is not recurring? A: I don't think they would reject the charge, but I would assume the transaction would be declined and you'd have to pay a surcharge which could be pretty hefty. There are lots of things out of your control that could cause this so be prepared to take some lumps if that happens. ichert from Pfluegers Weingarten the East Indian city of Calcutta and the British India s green house. Weingarten is a German plant trade and family company that dates back to the Middle Ages and is headquartered in East Germany. The Calcutta Tea Traders Association is a non-profit organization formed in 1891 to increase the quantity of tea trade of the city of Calcutta. It also allows consumers to buy, sell, and trade tea during the tea season as well as any other time. Major industries that are located in Calcutta are tea and coffee trading. However, its tea and coffee companies have contributed to the independence of many countries. About half of the world s tea production is grown in India. Calcutta tea is known for its lower grade tea than other parts of India. Despite this, it can be worth some
