She is an alpha female, so the staff are forced to obey her orders when she dictates her schedule. Lucy has marked her territory on the examination table and the floor. She is constantly looking for "Lucy's space" where she can curl up and sleep. Lucy constantly needs to be walked and groomed. Lucy is good with small animals, as long as they haven't been housebroken. Lucy likes to think she is a cross between a lapdog and a cat. She is particularly catlike when it comes to food. She has a constant tummy ache, but insists on eating 3 times a day. Lucy would like to sit at the window and watch the world go by, but must stay on command during the work day. She doesn't like long walks or rainy weather. Lucy spends her free time playing at the dog park, occasionally going for a ride on the carousel. Instructions Lucy is the lab technician. Lucy is very intelligent; she plans to study animal husbandry at Purdue University. Lucy lives in the animal hospital.Q: excel subtract and sum (arrange) I'm having 82138339de
