Please help. I can only view my desktop (could have sworn I already posted it before and stated it was different) and only have a black screen while I'm logged into school. I have tried to reinstall Firefox, which did not work, or the resolution. Can anyone help? I was also thinking that I could try and install it in the command prompt, but as an OS with terminal open I don't know if that is possible. This is just a public computer I'm at so security isn't an issue, but I don't want to be locked out of school for it so I'm hoping to have some help.

Ivan Damjanović Ivan Damjanović (born 30 September 1952 in Radića Brdo, Sarajevo) is a retired Bosnian football goalkeeper and current assistant manager of the Bosnia and Herzegovina national football team. In 1978 he joined FK Sarajevo as the goalkeeper of the club's youth, and played for the senior team until 1981. He then switched to rival FK Vojvodina and he played there for eight years, first as a regular and then in a backup role to several goalkeepers. His career at Vojvodina also included a spell as a manager. International career During the 1980s he was a regular member of the national team, but his career was cut short by a plane crash in Barajevo in January 1989, that killed a young Bosnian international forward, who played the same position. After one year's retirement he returned to the national team in 1998 for the 1998 FIFA World Cup qualification. Managerial career Club management After retiring from football he became a manager in Vojvodina. When Davor Šuker was chosen as the new manager of Vojvodina, Damjanović was named his assistant and subsequently became the manager of the club's second team, Vojvodina Novi Sad. His coaching career started well with his teams winning the 2001–02 Football Championship of Vojvodina Novi Sad. After the departure of Šuker in 2003 Damjanović was also named as the Vojvodina Novi Sad head coach for the 2003–04 season, but he was replaced by Stanko Stanojević in March 2004. He returned to the club as a manager in the summer of 2004, when he was the assistant

CHATEAU DE BRISSARD RESORT, INC., Defendant-Appellant. No. 87-1446. Court of Appeal of Louisiana, Third Circuit. March 17, 1988. Pat A. Miller and Dorothy Marie Miller, Marksville, for plaintiff-appellee. Steven J. Behler, Alexandria, for defendant-appellant. Before STOKER, DOUCET and CULPEPPER, JJ. DOUCET, Judge. The issue in this appeal is whether the trial court erred in awarding damages to plaintiff, Richard L. Vaudreuil, who fell from a horse-drawn carriage in the defendant's resort. On June 17, 1985, plaintiff was riding his horse at Chateau de Brossard, a resort owned by defendant. The horse was pulled by a pair of horses attached to the carriage. At some point, the carriage became separated from the horse and went down an incline. The carriage bumped and jarred on the ground. Plaintiff fell out of the carriage, sustaining injury to his left knee. Plaintiff filed suit against defendant on June 30, 1985. After defendant answered, plaintiff filed a motion for summary judgment. The *1238 trial court granted the motion, dismissing defendant from the suit. Defendant filed a timely motion for new trial and a motion to vacate the summary judgment which was overruled. Defendant then appealed the summary judgment. This court, in a per curiam opinion, reversed the summary judgment and remanded the matter to the trial court for further proceedings. See Vaudreuil v. Chateau de Brossard, 530 So.2d 1284 (La.App. 3rd Cir.1988). On February 14, 1986, defendant filed an exception of res judicata, contending that the judgment in plaintiff's favor in the prior suit precluded further litigation of the issues of defendant's negligence and the extent of the injury plaintiff suffered in the June 17, 1985, accident. On April 4, 1986, the trial court rendered judgment dismissing plaintiff's suit without prejudice. After the judgment was signed dismissing plaintiff's suit, he filed a
