: Sajid has to take on the American rebel leader to be exchanged for the captured Indian spy, MOHANDAS, played by JAYAVI KAPOOR. PRODUCTION NOTES: 1. The look of the "Baahubali" villain is the revenge of Rana Pratap. He's a general, having led the army of the Rajputs against the Mughal forces. He never changed his attire. His beard was trimmed to just a few hairs, and his face was covered with a white scarf. It gave him a scarred, violent look. 2. A lot of the first-time Indian action scenes were done in large outdoor sets. It was fairly exhausting, and the actors looked exhausted. There were actually three units: the first unit did the fight sequences, the second unit did the dialogue scenes, and the third unit did the more emotional scenes. 3. ARRIVAL DAY. 4. DAY 1. 5.
